HOLY THURSDAY PRAYER

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Let us pray,

Dear Precious Heavenly Father,

We, as your beloved, stand in unity with Matthew 18:19, which says, “If two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by my Father in Heaven.” We agree and confess with our mouths that Jesus is Lord. Grant us the impartation of the Holy Spirit every day. We confess there is only one to be revered and emulated and that is the Lord Jesus Christ. We take every thought captive to the obedience of Christ. In Jesus Name, we praise your glorious and Holy Name! Amen.

THE STRIPPING OF THE SANCTUARY

In accordance with ancient custom, the Chancel is now stripped bare as a sign of the sorrow of the evening – Jesus’ betrayal, arrest, abandonment, desolation, and approaching crucifixion.

BENEDICTION AND SENDING FORTH

As we enter the silence of the tomb, let us pray together

God of salvation, God of our eternal life. Fill our emptiness as we leave this Holy place. Let the silence that we feel lead us to the joy of Easter Sunday. Walk with us in the darkness that we may see the light of your Son Jesus. It is all for you that we pray. Amen

Thank you for maintaining Silence as you leave this holy place.
